

Adolescent professionals will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of mental health, violent behaviors, obesity, substance abuse, and well-being.

Adolescent professionals will demonstrate acceptance of and contribute to the development and maintenance of culturally competent service delivery.

Adolescent professionals will strive to improve the health and well-being of adolescents by increasing knowledge of obesity and physical activity.

Adolescent professionals will advocate for an understanding of the needs of adolescents and for resources and cooperation among professionals and agencies to meet those needs

Adolescent professionals will participate in multidisciplinary case consultation across agencies that provide services for adolescents and families with substance abuse histories.

Adolescent professionals will maintain confidentiality in their relationship with youths and of the information obtained within that relationship

Adolescent professionals will assume an active role in contributing to the safety and reduction of violence among adolescents.

Adolescent professionals will demonstrate an understanding of and ability to assess the mental health needs of adolescents; access social institutions, organizations, and resources within a community that provide services for adolescents and their families.