Problem Statement

Health insurance premiums and medical costs continue to increase in California. Many county employees utilize sick time because of chronic diseases, which reduces work productivity. County employees have limited chances to develop healthy lifestyles because of a lack of time and resources. Worksite Wellness Programs are a strategy to address these issues.

Trends of Obesity and Chronic Disease

In the U.S.
- Healthcare-related costs of overweight and obesity:
  - $117 billion in 2000
- Cost of chronic disease:
  - $505 billion in 2000
