

Reported Leptospirosis in Dogs, by residence location,
Los Angeles County, 2002 - 2008

Leptospirosis Cases
 + Suspect Case
 + Confirmed Case

Note: For the purpose of surveillance, a confirmed case is considered to either have a fourfold change in antibody titer or a 1:800 or greater level in a single titer (if only one titer performed) as well as compatible clinical signs.

Los Angeles County Dept of Public Health
 Veterinary Public Health & Rabies Control
 562-401-7088
<http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/vet/>